

VOL. XXIII

Give Them a Chance!
That is to say, your lungs. Also all your breathing machinery. Very wonderful machinery it is. Not only the larger air passages, but the thousand and one little tubes and cavities leading from them.

When these are clogged and choked with matter which ought not to be there your lungs cannot do their work. And what they do, they cannot do well. Call it cold, cough, croup, pneumonia, catarrh, consumption or any of the names of throat and nose and head and lung obstructions, all are bad. All ought to be got rid of. There is but one sure way to get rid of them. That is to take Boesche's German Syrup, which any druggist will sell you at 75 cents a bottle. Even if everything else has failed you, you may depend upon this for certain.

Heroes and Heroines.
There are few who endure bodily troubles without complaint. Did you ever meet among the heroes or heroines of your acquaintance—if any such there have been—one with a yellowish cast of countenance and that jaundiced aspect generally, which the most unpracticed eye recognizes as the product of a disordered liver, who did not complain, and peevishly, too, of the corners of the right shoulder blade, of dyspeptic symptoms, constipation and headache? Of course you never did, and of course the individual was not using Hostetter's Stomach Bitter, or he would not so have looked—so have complained. To purify the blood when contaminated with bile, and conduct the secretion into its proper channel, to re-establish regularity of the bowels, banish bilious headache and remove impediments to complete digestion, nothing can approach in efficacy this peevish alterative and tonic. Malarial complaints, always involving the liver and kidney and bladder inactivity, are remedied by it. It is capital appetizer.

"There Was Such a Show, and if We Live to be a Hundred Years Old We Never Expect to Hear or Read of Its Equal Unless John Robinson Comes to this Town Again."

"For he is the only man in the world who is capable of 'out-Heroding Herod,'" is what the Toledo paper says of John Robinson's Ten Big New Gigantic Shows and his Great Mastodon Three Ring Circus, which exhibited here yesterday forenoon, afternoon and night, and concludes an extended notice of the Leviathan show, as follows: "Although the great show of John Robinson, has, without one single iota of a chance, for dispute, the pavilion of any circus or menagerie on the continent, it was by long odds far too small to accommodate the immense crowds of people who thronged the vast grounds eagerly trying to obtain admission to the grand exhibition. The giant canvas has a seating capacity of thirty thousand persons, and thousands were turned away for want of room. There never was such a circus boom in Toledo. Every man, woman, child and dog was out, and the entire population of the surrounding country for fifty miles came pouring into the city like a vast flood. John Robinson was compelled to give four shows in one day, a most unheard of phenomena, and which is an event which does not occur but once in a lifetime. John Robinson will surely come to Reno July 22.

Murdered by Prejudice.

Thousands of men die every day who might be saved. Prejudice has murdered many a man and woman. If it were believed that the sum of disease could be reduced by physic much would be gained. The nightmare of death would not frighten us as it does. In our modern civilization we ought reasonably to expect disease to settle upon us because we do so much to attract it; because we so often and so steadily expose ourselves to it. At the same time we all ought to understand, as a part of our rudimentary education, that to save ourselves from the effects of such exposure some kind of fortification should be built around our vital forces lest the enemy carry us, as it were, by a sudden onslaught. For many years the unprejudiced have used Dr. Brandreth's Pills in this way and they have proved a most effective wall against the approach of disease. Stop the daily murders—we had almost said suicides—by using these Pills. They speak for themselves—as they act. When everything else has failed Brandreth's Pills have saved lives. They are to be had at every drug-store.

A Fighting Parson.

It is said of the late Rev. Dr. Granville Moody, the "fighting parson," that once at Piqua, Ohio, where he was preaching, he made a patriotic remark that rather cut Mr. Frank McKinney, a local Democratic leader, and McKinney threatened to whip him. "You may get hurt if you try it," replied the minister. But McKinney wasn't afraid and attacked him on the public street. In a twinkling Dr. Moody grappled with him, got his head "in chancery" and pounded him until he begged for mercy, when he let him go, saying: "I told you, Frank, I might hurt you." In the scuffle they tumbled over a boy and broke his leg. Dr. Moody at once took charge of the youngster, paid the surgeon's bill and more, and sent an account to McKinney for half the expenses, which the latter paid.

U. S. Postal Service.

When the Government of the United States was formally inaugurated in 1789 the number of post-offices in the country was 75; in 1800 there were 903; in 1825, 5,677; in 1875, 35,785, and in 1886, 53,614. The whole length of public mail routes in operation last year was 371,880 miles. The revenue of the Department for 1886 amounted to $43,948,422, while the expenditures amounted to $50,389,340. In 1882 and 1883 there was a surplus of revenue each year amounting to considerable more than $1,000,000, but owing the reduction of letter postage from 3 to 2 cents the extension of the weight limit from half an ounce to an ounce, and then, against the very great reduction in newspaper postage, there has since been a deficiency.

A Big Undertaking.

Colonel Crocker has informed a reporter that a survey would soon be taken for a bridge over the Straits of Carquinez, so as to make it serve not only for the traffic of the main line, but for the Napa Valley road running to Napa and Calistoga. The business of that road is constantly increasing and it must be taken care of. The idea is to do away with the transfer ferry between Vallejo Junction and Vallejo, as well as with the big ferryboat Solano.

A Rare Occurrence.

A woman in Elmira, N. Y., cut two of her fingers off accidentally some time ago, and a surgeon sewed them on again. The Gazette says: The fingers have become reunited to the hand and Mrs. Davidson is now recovering the use of them. It is said but three cases of successful operation of the kind are on record.

SATURDAY, JULY 16, 1887

The telegraph informs us that the Secretary of the Interior is considering and will probably approve today the new regulation regarding mineral land lying within railroad grants that appear likely to cause railroads considerable trouble and to gladden the hearts of the country newspaper editors in the counties lying along the lines of these roads. At present the railroad, in making its selections of land, is not compelled to make affidavits, as is the entryman of agricultural lands, but is required simply to state in its selection the mere fact that the lands are not mineral. The Commissioner of the General Land Office complains that such mineral land is included in the selected lands of the railroad, the statement of the agent of the road being based upon the reports of the Surveyor General of the States and Territories. To obviate this the Secretary has had prepared the following form for agents of land-grant roads:

I, being duly sworn, depose and say that I am the land agent of the _____, formerly the _____, that the foregoing list of lands which I hereby select is a correct list of the portion of the public lands claimed by said _____ Company as inuring to _____, to aid in the construction of the _____ from _____, for which a grant of lands was made by the acts of Congress approved _____; that I have personally examined said tracts and each legal subdivision thereof; that my knowledge of said lands is such as to enable me to testify understandingly with regard thereto; that there is not to my knowledge any vein or lode of quartz or other rock on the place bearing gold, silver, copper, lead, tin or copper; that there is not within the limits of said land to my knowledge any placer, cement, gravel or other valuable mineral deposit except coal and iron; that no portion of said land is claimed for mining purposes under the local customs or rules of miners or otherwise; that no portion of said land is worked for mineral during any part of the year by any person or persons; that the lands are essentially non-mineral lands; that the lands are vacant and unappropriated, and are not reserved lands, being within the limits of _____ miles on each side of the line of route for a continuous distance of _____ miles, being for _____ section of _____, starting from _____, and ending at _____.

The above oath is to be used by the railroads in every State and Territory where mineral lands, except coal and iron lands, are supposed to be.

The telegraph goes on to say that the Central Pacific objects to filling mining affidavits, and says the road in Nevada is 447 miles long, and that the lands to be selected from embrace four million acres. It would require the testimony of the major portion of the male adult population of the State to prove what was wanted, and as the statutes do not provide for such a wholesale hearing, there would be no protection against false testimony.

The Secretary replies that he is willing to accept the unimpeached testimony of railroad agents in this matter, and makes the above regulation.

Competition appears to figure as an important element in railroad discrimination. The Illinois Central Railroad Company charged 10 cents per hundred pounds for carrying green coffee in the sack from Chicago to Mattoon, a distance of 122 miles, and on the same day charged another person 16 cents per hundred for carrying coffee in the sack from Chicago to Kankakee, a distance of only 56 miles; the transportation in both instances being in the same direction and over the same road. In a suit by the State to recover the penalty for unjust discrimination, the defendant showed that there was no competition between Kankakee and Mattoon in the grocery trade, and claimed that the discrimination was not unjust, and therefore allowable. The Supreme Court of Illinois held (Illinois Central Railroad vs. The People of the State of Illinois, noted in Chicago Legal News) that the fact that there may be no competition in a particular trade between two points upon a railroad does not show that a discrimination in charges for transportation as between two such points is not unjust.

The New York World says that "President Cleveland does a fair share of traveling for a man holding his responsible position, but he does too much of it in the State of New York. He should extend his geographical knowledge and make the acquaintance of the good people who reside in the South and West." Very few people have seen less of this country than President Cleveland, and it would be well for him to extend his travels somewhat, so as to form a better idea of the greatness of the country over which he occupies the position of Chief Executive. He would probably form a more exalted opinion of the country and have a less exalted opinion of himself.

Cleveland is said to favor the admission of Utah as an offset to Dakota. A more "offensive partisan" proposition would be difficult to imagine.

Heavy Losses by a New York Fire.

FIRE DISPATCHES TO THE GAZETTE.

The President and Party.

SYRACUSE, July 16. President Cleveland and his party will arrive at Casenovia at 1 p. m. on Monday, and will be met at the station by the village Presidents and Board of Trustees, all the civic societies of the village and the fire department. All of those who will act as an escort to the home of Secretary Fairchild, on the lake shore. From 4 until 6 o'clock a public reception will be held, after which the guests will be entertained by the father of Secretary Fairchild at home. They will return to Casenovia for the night, and expect to start for Washington on Wednesday morning. There was a crowd of 500 at the depot where the train with the Presidential party arrived. It was expected a short stop would be made, but a few minutes before the train arrived, a telegram was received, saying the party would not stop because the President was not well. The train, however, brought up to the city slowly; the President and Mrs. Cleveland stood on the rear platform of their car and bowed to the people at the depot. A cheer went up as the train passed. One thousand people welcomed the President and party at Clayton, the terminus of the railroad. The party immediately proceeded to the steamer St. Lawrence. The President and Mrs. Cleveland returned the salutations of the crowd as the steamer pulled out amid cheers. They reached Thousand Island park at 1:20 p. m., and will dine at 3 p. m. on board the boat, and will return to Clayton at 6 o'clock, where a special train will be taken.

Heavy Loss by Fire.

NEW YORK, July 16. A fire was discovered about 3 o'clock this morning in the five story brick building of the Metropolitan storage warehouse in Thirty-eighth street, between Broadway and Sixth Avenue. In a few moments the flames mounted up through the structure, finding ready food in the light stuff stored therein. Before the firemen arrived the whole place was a raging furnace. The warehouse formed an "L" within the Casino building, and for a while it was feared that beautiful temple of light opera would be in ashes, but it was saved by the strenuous efforts of the firemen. The hotel Normandie, quite near, was set on fire, but it was soon extinguished, and the guests being reassured, went back to bed. Soon after the firemen had got to work at the storage warehouse building a terrific explosion occurred, and seven firemen were blown through the windows to the street. All of them were severely injured. The business was conducted by Solon Ridabacke, and the buildings and land are the property of the Galat estate. The damage is estimated at a half million, although it may be much more. The warehouse was used by New Yorkers who are out of town, and contained furniture, paintings and valuable bric-a-brac of all kinds.

Cordially Received.

WATERTOWN, N. Y., July 16. The Committee of Reception at Forestport was composed equally of Republicans and Democrats, the former vying with the latter in the endeavor to make the President's sojourn in the village pleasant. At Boonville the crowd cheered the President and his wife as they stood on the rear platform of the car. At Port Leydon the crowd again cheered them; at Glendale a stop was made for water, and the people crowded forward to shake hands; at Lowville about all the inhabitants were at the depot, and a salute was fired. The President stepped down to the platform and was introduced to such as could crowd forward in three minutes' time by Postmaster Bostick. At Carthage a large crowd was assembled, and the depot was handsomely decorated. At 10:4 the party reached Watertown.

An Envelope Makers Consolidation.

NEW YORK, July 16. The principal envelope manufacturers of New York and New England representing fully nine tenths of all the envelopes produced in the United States, who are making from ten to twelve million per day, have entered into an arrangement for the advancing of the prices of their goods. The new corporation is called the Standard Envelope Co. It is claimed there is no intention of raising the prices to an unreasonable figure. It is estimated the increase will be from five to ten per cent.

Still Coxing the President.

ST. LOUIS, July 16. Mayor Francis this morning appointed a committee to carry an invitation to the President to visit this city during the Fall festivities. On the committee were the Presidents of the various associations having in charge the Fall festivities, and many prominent citizens, representing the Union and Confederate soldiers and business men. The colored citizens are represented by one of their race. The delegation will start next Thursday.

A Threatening Forest Fire.

PITTSBURG, July 16. Telegrams from Brookville, in the lumber regions of Pennsylvania, report forest fires raging in every direction, and fears are entertained for a number of settlements which are threatened with destruction. A large force is at work fighting the flames, but so far all efforts have been fruitless.

A Terrible Railroad Accident.

ST. THOMAS, Ont., July 16. The number of killed in the railroad disaster yesterday was 19, and the injured about forty. After the collision occurred the passengers commenced emerging from the car windows, every available means of egress being taken advantage of. A majority of the passengers in the car next to the engine had been got out when the engine plunged into the train. Engineer Donnelly was found in his cab with his hand on the lever still, as if endeavoring to make the air brakes work. To add additional horror to the affair, the section of the train into which the engine of the passenger train plunged, consisted of two cars containing tanks of crude oil and a car loaded with barrels of refined oil, and almost before the passengers heard the crash of the collision it was followed by a tremendous explosion, which could be heard for miles. Pyramids of red fire and black clouds of smoke towered up in the air, and in a moment sheets of fire rushed out and enveloped the cars, dwellings and warehouses in the vicinity. The burning oil was scattered around in all directions, setting fire to Griffith's coal and salt warehouse, J. L. Campbell's dwelling and watch house and other structures in the vicinity, destroying all these and causing a loss of about $50,000.

A Sultry Climate.

CHICAGO, July 16. The intensely hot weather here and throughout the northwest continues. The mercury is ranging between 95 and 105 degrees. There were four deaths here from sunstroke this morning.

CINCINNATI, July 16.

The temperature was two degrees hotter at noon today than yesterday. There have been a number of prostrations from the heat among the laborers and others exposed. There were four deaths yesterday, and four more deaths have been reported up to noon today. Many laborers have given up work on account of the great heat.

PITTSBURG, July 16.

The mercury was 97 at 2 p. m., the highest point reached this season. Two fatal cases of sunstroke and a number of serious prostrations from the heat are reported. The iron and steel mills were compelled to close during the heat of the day.

CLEVELAND, July 16.

The heat here today was terrific. Yesterday was the hottest July day in Cleveland for nine years, but it is several degrees warmer today, the mercury registering 98 degrees in the shade.

DETROIT, July 16.

Yesterday and today is the hottest weather known here for many years. Yesterday the thermometer reached 94 degrees, and at 6 a. m. today it was 81 degrees, and at noon 95 degrees.

UTICA, N. Y., July 16.

At 3 p. m. today the mercury registered 98 degrees in the shade.

WASHINGTON NOTES.

WASHINGTON, July 16. The Inter-State Commission has decided that any railroad lying wholly within one State, but which makes rates and issues bills to points in another State is so much that traffic is concerned, subject to the provisions of the Inter-State law. Jay Cooke, a banker and broker of this city, and son of ex-Governor H. D. Cooke, and nephew of Jay Cooke, the famous banker of Philadelphia, died at the residence of his mother, in Georgetown, this morning, of Bright's disease.

The Treasury Department has decided that there is nothing in the Contract-labor law to prevent American citizens who may reside in Canada from engaging in labor in the United States.

A Good Horse Injured.

PITTSBURG, July 16. Captain Sam S. Brown, owner of the great race-horse Troubadour, arrived home yesterday, and in speaking of Thursday's race with the Bard at Monmouth, Captain Brown said: "Troubadour could have conceded the Bard ten pounds and been better off. Brown reports Troubadour badly crippled and liable to break down at any time. 'I am afraid,' said he, 'that he will have to be retired to the stud next year, even if he does finish the season all right. His left foreleg is in a bad shape, the main or middle tendon being affected. This leg is in worse shape than his right foreleg, where he accidentally hit himself at Chicago.'

High Life Scandal.

GRAND RAPIDS, Mich., July 15. The whole city is literally torn up this evening by the arrest of General Louis W. Heath, a well-known citizen, on a warrant issued by Robert J. Walker, of this city, charging him with alienating the affections of his wife. Walker claims that he discovered General Heath and Mrs. Walker in a compromising attitude in the office over Heath's store on the Fourth of July. The parties concerned have succeeded in keeping the matter out of the papers until this morning, when Walker commenced proceedings. Walker claims damages to the amount of $10,000. All the parties concerned are well known and more in good society.

FOREIGN DISPATCHES.

Bulgaria's New King.

VIENNA, July 16. Prince Ferdinand yesterday received the deputation sent to officially notify him of his election to the Bulgarian throne. In reply, he said: "If I should follow my heart's impulse I would hasten to Bulgaria and put myself at the head of the nation. But a Prince elected ruler of Bulgaria must respect the treaties. I hope to justify the Porte's confidence and to obtain the consent of the Powers, and to regain in time Russia's sympathy, to which Bulgaria owes her freedom. I hope to prove my devotion to Bulgaria when the moment comes."

No One Allowed to Ride.

PARIS, July 16. On the night of the fete some persons who were riding in cabs were compelled to alight in the streets by the mob. Those who declined to do so were forcibly removed from the vehicles. A hostile demonstration was made at the German Embassy in Bordeaux, and the windows were broken in the office of the local Government organ.

British Politics.

LONDON, July 16. The Crimes bill was discussed in Committee in the Lords last night. Lord Northbrook, (Liberal) expressed surprise at the summary disposal of the debate on the bill yesterday, and before proceeding further with the Irish Legislation, he urged the party leaders to give the country definite answers on four points: Were the Irish members to remain in Westminster? Was the province of Ulster to be treated separately from the rest of Ireland? Was the duty to maintain law and order to be intrusted to an Irish Parliament? Was the power over the land to be committed to an Irish Parliament. Lord Roseberry (Liberal) held that the discussion of these points were outside of the scope of the Crimes bill, that the Liberal peers were in a hopeless minority and could do no more than protest against the bill. In conclusion, he said he felt bound to warn the Government of the effect of the measure, that their administration in Ireland would have to be continued in a style of sleep, without a further brief discussion the bill was passed in committee without amendments. The bill will be read a third time on Monday.

Diplomatic Hitch.

LONDON, July 16. In the Commons last night, Sir James Ferguson, Parliamentary Secretary for the foreign office, reported that the Egyptian convention had not been ratified by Turkey, and that Sir Henry Drummond Wolfe, the special envoy, having the matter in charge, would leave Constantinople at once.

Consolidating Proposition.

OTTAWA, Ont., July 16. It is said that the object of Sir Alexander Campbell's trip to New Foundland is to endeavor to induce that colony to join the Canadian Confederation. The new Government of Newfoundland is said to favor the proposition.

Want Cheaper Postage.

LONDON, July 16. One hundred members of the House of Commons have formed a committee for the purpose of endeavoring to cheapen postal and telegraph charges between the mother country and the colonies.

A Reckless Proposition.

PARIS, July 16. The Figaro says Captain Jervis will, in October, attempt to make a balloon voyage across the Atlantic to New York. He will start from St. Nazaire.

WESTERN DISPATCHES.

A Thin Explanation.

SALT LAKE, July 16. Michael Cullen, brother of Matthew Cullen was shot and killed Thursday night, about 5:30 o'clock. He was in company with Andy Colton and Jerry Fibberty going from Milford to Star Mining District in a wagon. Colton claimed that Cullen choked him, whereupon he pulled a pistol and shot Cullen six times while sitting in his seat, four or five shots taking effect.

San Francisco Chosen.

The Board of Directors of the National Education Association, at a meeting held by them in Chicago on Tuesday last, passed unanimously the following resolution after a spirited discussion:

Resolved, That the communication from the Legislature of the State of California, and from the several railroad companies that have made propositions for low rates of fare, be respectfully received and referred to a committee of five, with power to determine the time and place of the next association meeting, with instructions that they select the city of San Francisco, provided that satisfactory arrangements can be made there.

In Brief, and to the Point.

Dyspepsia is dreadful. Disordered liver is misery. Indigestion is a foe to good nature.

The human digestive apparatus is one of the most complicated and wonderful things in existence. It is easily put out of order.

Grossy food, tough food, sloppy food, bad cookery, mental worry, late hours, irregular habits, and many other things which ought not to be, have made American people a nation of dyspeptics.

But Green's August Flower has done a wonderful work in reforming this sad business and making the American people so healthy that they can enjoy their meat and be happy.

Remember—No happiness without health. But Green's August Flower brings health and happiness to the dyspeptic. Ask your druggist for a bottle. Seventy-five cents.

A LONG TRAMP.

FROM CORINTH, MISS. TO CALIFORNIA.

A Father and His Little Boy and Girl. Aged, respectively, five and four years, traveling over this expanse of 2,000 miles on foot—sixty-four miles in a day and night—what the father says of the trip.

In his perambulations about town this morning a GAZETTE reporter saw, sitting in the shade of the C. P. water tank just east of the Depot Hotel, a middle aged man and a little boy and girl. It was evident that the trio had "roughed it," all of them being tanned until brown and wearing clothing worn to shreds in parts and begrimed with alkali dust.

"Good morning, sir," said the reporter to the man, "you look as though you had been traveling."

"Yes, we have. But we will soon be to our journey's end, and I shall be glad when we reach it."

"Where did you come from, and where are you going?" questioned the reporter.

"We came from Corinth, Mississippi, and we are bound for my sister's home in California, which is in Contra Costa county, some nine miles out of Hayward."

"Are these your children, and did the three of you tramp it all the way from Mississippi here?"

"That's just what we did," answered the man. "The distance from Corinth here is about 2,000 miles. Of that distance we beat our way on trains a probable distance of 300 miles."

"Pop, do you mind that conductor that fired us in Colorado?" interrupted the little girl, scarcely five years of age.

"There was a fireman on a freight train in Colorado," continued the man, "who allowed us to ride with him on the engine for nearly 90 miles. That was over the 'divide.' After that we came to a desert, and during one day and night we walked 84 miles."

"How long has it been since you left Corinth?"

"Just three months and six days."

"How have the children stood the tramp?"

"Well, they showed signs of weakening once or twice, but we rested and then they would start off as bright as ever."

"How old is the boy?"

"He's just past five years."

"What is your name, and are you a Southerner by birth?"

"My name is Bollinger. I am not what one would hardly call a Southerner. I was raised in Missouri, and during three years of the late war I fought in the Union army. I enlisted at Irontown, Missouri."

"Are you a member of the Grand Army of the Republic? If so, I think you will have no trouble in getting some assistance here."

"No, I don't belong to the society; never had a good chance to join it."

"How was it that you ever started out on such a tramp with your two little ones? Is their mother dead?"

"Yes, their mother died several years ago. When I determined upon going to California and taking them along with me I found the cheapest railroad fare was $55. That was more money than I had, so we started on foot. Thus far the trip has cost me a little over $16."

"When do you expect to reach your sister's home?"

"Within a week. I have just dispatched to her that we are coming."

"Is she as poor as you are?"

"No, indeed; she is worth over $20,000."

"Well, look out when you get in California that some of the officials there don't take your children away from you and place them in a public institution," advised the reporter. "They can do it if they see you and are so inclined."

"No man dare separate me and my children," said the father, his eyes flashing fire. "If they want to do anything for us they can assist us to our journey's end, but they won't separate us, and if they attempt it there will be trouble."

Scantly Attired.

Three girls and two young men went bathing in the Sacramento river, on the Yolo shore. While they were in the water their clothing took fire, either from maliciousness of some person or a carelessly thrown cigarette, and was totally consumed. They were compelled to return to their homes in broad daylight attired only in trunk bathing suits.

Shaw's Hot Springs.

James S. Shaw is again able to accommodate the many desiring baths at these famous springs. In a letter to the GAZETTE he says: "I have got my springs in first-class order at last. Have nine baths, and can handle the water nine degrees hotter than I ever could." The free bus leaves Carson as usual.

Fine Crops.

George Small, of the Fort Bidwell stage line, who came in last evening from the North, informed a GAZETTE reporter that the crops in that country are unusually heavy. The Goose Lake country never raised as fine a crop of grain as this year.

Four Hours Late.

This morning's east-bound overland, due here at half-past 6 o'clock, was nearly four hours late, owing to its being detained at Sacramento for an hour and a half, waiting for the Southern Pacific train, and at Truckee two hours on account of a broken wheel on one of the coaches.

A Timely Suggestion.

The Sacramento Record Union says: It is good news that the National Educational Association has determined to hold its next annual session in California. It is now in session in Chicago with representation 18,000 strong. It is probable that fully 10,000 delegates will come to California. The immense value of the visitation must be apparent to all. These people are representative of the broadest intelligence and highest intellectual culture. They are also representative of a hard-working and devoted class of laborers in the interest of human progress.

Such a body of men and women coming to California and given fair opportunity to see it to advantage, will advertise the State at the E at greatly to our benefit. Every consideration demands that we should begin early to prepare for the important visitation, and should make ready for it in a way to secure the greatest possible benefit from the report the visitors will give of our State. There is nothing we fear to have them examine. We can submit the State and its resources to their judgment upon merit, safe in the assurance that the verdict will be favorable.

The Reno Evening GAZETTE comes to us in an enlarged form, which is conclusive evidence of its prosperity. The GAZETTE is one of the best papers published in the State and is entitled to the very liberal patronage it is receiving in the way of subscriptions and advertising. An Attractive Scene.

The Sierra Nevada Tourist contains the following: McKinney's wharf now-a-days bears quite a variegated appearance on the arrival of the daily steamer. Dresses up white, in black, in red, in lawn, striped and unstriped, with drapery and without drapery, big hats, little hats, small hats, hats in all styles and shades, but oh, the faces under them! We fear if they should or could be described that the other lake resorts would lose their male population as a consequence, and be concentrated at McKinney's freight.

To Make a Prosperous Town.

Says an exchange: A good town is one in which the farmer spends his money with the home merchant, the laborers spend the money they earn with tradesmen, where the feeling and good will of every citizen is in sympathy with home industries, and where every article that can be bought of the local dealers and manufacturers. The spirit of reciprocity between business men and merchants, tradesmen and laborers, farmers and all, make business lively, the town prosper and grow, and above all, is a pleasant place to live.

A Contingent Fee.

A Carson lawyer being asked the meaning of a "contingent fee," replied: "If I bring a suit for you and lose the case, I get nothing; if I win the case, you get nothing."

RENO WATER.

A Scientific Analysis of that Now Supplied the Town and of Hunter Creek.

PRESENT SUPPLY.

OFFICE OF C. M. FASSETT, RUGGIST AND ANALYST, RENO, NEV., JUNE 18, 1937.

T. K. HYMAN, ESQ., CHAIRMAN, BOARD OF COUNTY COMMISSIONERS—DEAR SIR:

In accordance with your request I have analyzed a number of samples of water furnished by you, with special reference to such impurities as would render it unfit for domestic use, and beg leave to present the following report:

Sample No. 1 was taken from the river about 100 feet above town at the point where the Highland ditch takes its supply; sample No. 2 was taken from the main reservoir, four feet from the surface, near where the water used in the town is taken; sample No. 3 was taken from the Highland ditch just before it empties into the main reservoir. The following is a tabulated statement of the results of the tests made:

(In parts per million.)

SAMPLES. (No. 1, No. 2, No. 3.)

Free ammonia..... .076 .152 .078

Albumenoid ammonia..... .083 .284 .059

(In grains per gallon.)

SAMPLES. (No. 1, No. 2, No. 3.)

Total solids..... 6.526 6.784 9.834

Organic solids..... .614 .916 .614

Mineral matter..... 4.912 5.868 9.219

Chlorine..... .112 .112 .112

The ammonia found indicates the presence of contamination from animal sources, such as sewage, decomposing animal matter, etc., and in Nos. 1 and 2 is in proportion as can be expected in a stream which flows through as many towns as the Truckee; while in No. 3 it is in three times the quantity as in the others, and above the limit of safety—fixed by most authorities at .08 to .12 parts per million, and .18 to .20 parts albumenoid ammonia per million of water.

The second table shows the results obtained from careful evaporation of the water, and indicates the presence of inorganic solids, and proves that the water of the Truckee is as free from organic matter, and is as pure as that supplied to almost any city of the Union.

Impurities resulting from seawater in the river would be shown in the table under the head of "organic solids," but the results show that the amount of such matter is very small; much less, indeed, than is contained in many natural springs, and which carry five grains or more of organic matter to the gallon just where they bubble from the earth.

The comparatively large amount of total solids in sample No. 3 is accounted for by the fact that the sample was taken from the ditch the second day the water was running in it, after it had been empty for a few days, the water naturally being turbid from fine particles of silt taken up from the bed of the ditch.

The samples all show an alkaline reaction, but so slight as to be immaterial; being less than one-tenth of the limit of safety, placed at "an alkalinity greater than that produced by adding one part, by weight, of caustic soda to one thousand parts of distilled water."

These various results show: First—that the water supplied to the town through the main reservoir is not sufficiently pure to be used for domestic purposes with safety.

Secondly—that the water in the river is reasonably pure and wholesome, and Thirdly—that the water supplied to the town receives the greater part of its impurities in the main reservoir and its approaches.
